

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, September 17. 1713.

London, September 17.

Yesterday arriv'd the Mails due from Holland and Flanders.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Sept. 12.

Warsaw, September 3.

TIS reported the King received Advice Yesterday, that the King of Sweden is dead at Demir-Tocca near Adrianople; and that thereupon the Grand Signior had dispatched an Express to Jassuff Bashaw who commands the Ottoman Army, with Order to secure King Stanislaus, the Palatine of Kiow, and all their Adherents: But this News requires Confirmation: The King designs to set out from hence in a few Days, to take a Review of his Troops which are drawing together near Sendomir. The Count de Stenawski, great General, who is with the Army of the Crown within 7 or 8 Leagues of Caminiee, has written a very submissive Letter to his Majesty, containing new Assurances of his Fidelity. Count Czermetoff has received Order from the Czar his Master, to advance towards the Frontiers of Podolia with the Troops he commands.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 22.

Turin, Sept. 2. On Thursday last Part of our Duke's Baggage set forward for Oneglia, to be imbarqued there for Sicily. The Departure of his Royal Highness for that Kingdom is ('tis said) put off to the End of this Month or Beginning of the next; because the magnificent Coaches, Liveries, and other Preparations, though Men work upon them with all Diligence, cannot be ready before that time, and besides our Court waits first for the Return of an Express from Madrid. There will not any Troops go over at first with the Duke to Sicily, not only because the Sicilians remonstrate very earnestly against it, but likewise because Umbrage is taken at the great Number of Forces which the Emperour has now in the Milanese. The repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of Suza is begun, and Commissaries are sent thither to see all done within a Month.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 22.

Genoa, Sept. 3. The Minister of France residing here, did some Days ago remonstrate to our Senate in very earnest Terms, that the King his Master could not be well pleased to see this Republick take Possession of the Town and Territory of Final, to the Prejudice of the Duke of Savoy: Notwithstanding which, after several extraordinary Assemblies and mature Deliberation, our Senate have resolv'd to abide by the Agreement which they have made with the Emperour for that Marquisate; pursuant to which Resolution a Lepury is gone thither this Morning to take Possession of Final in the Name of this Commonwealth; and a Garrison is to be put into it, consisting of 22 Companies of Foot and 300 Horse, who are to continue there till the Fortifications, which for taking away all Cause of Umbrage from the French and Savoyards, are all demolished and razed. For justifying the Proceedings of this State in this Affair, proper Orders are sent to our Envoy at the French Court; and we doubt not he will satisfy his most Christian Majesty.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Sept. 22.

Milan, Sept. 9. We have received Advice from Vienna, that the Emperour is not willing to yield to the Duke of Savoy what was agreed on by the Treaties, because that Prince has made his Peace separately; and as his Royal Highness is raising more Men than ordinary, we are apprehensive of new Troubles in these Parts. We do not hear yet when his Royal Highness will be going for Messina, Palermo, and other Places of Sicily.

From the Hague Courant, dated Sept. 22.

Genoa, Sept. 3. On Monday arrived here two of our Ships in 9 Days from Catalonia; one with 600 German Soldiers on board, and the other with Officers and Caralonians who have left their Country and imbarqued at Blanes.

Blanes. These Ships came away with the Convoy for Naples, but in the Gulph of Lyons were separated from them in a Storm. On board that Convoy are 2 Regiments bound for Reggio; and with them were 6 Ships and divers Barks with 1500 Soldiers, bound for this Place, which the 1st Instant came into San Pietro d'Arcana, and being landed are to Day to march towards the Milaneze. The Officers report, that at least 2000 of their Soldiers deserted to the Catalonians; and that the Inhabitants of Barcelona continue firm to their Resolution to defend themselves: They maintain 2000 Horse, which scour the open Country, and do the Spaniards great Mischief.

From the Hague Courant, dated Sept. 22.

Vienna, Sept. 9. Three Days ago a Proclamation was published here, commanding that all Persons whoever that have not Business at the Palace, shall absent themselves from it; and that those who have any thing to do there, shall as often as they give Attendance, take new Certificates of Health of the Marshal of the Imperial Court; in the mean while the Bridge-Gate of the Palace is kept shut. The Number of the dead here, is very much increased within these 4 Days; and yet we hear nothing of the Court's removing, nor indeed is the open Country free from the Sickness.

From the Hague Courant, dated Sept. 22.

Ausburg, Sept. 14. According to the last Advices from Vienna, the Mortality was very much increased there.

From the Imperial Camp at Muhlberg, Sept. 15. The Enemy having within these few Days pursued their March to Lauterbourg, posted some Troops in the Lines there, and then moving with their Horse to Fort-Louis and over against Lichtenau, and with their Foot to Strasbourg, have passed the Rhine at those Places, and we hear they have also posted a Body of Men on the Murch. Whether their Main Army will approach Fribourg to besiege it, or whether they will attack the Head of our Lines, a few Days will shew.

Frankfort, Sept. 17. All our Accounts concerning the Motions of the Enemy agree, that they are marched towards the Black Forrest; wherefore the greatest Part of the Army of the Empire is moving that Way likewise.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 22.

Antwerp, Sept. 21. Yesterday in the Afternoon arrived here the Duke of Marlborough, and was received with several Salvoes of our Artillery.
